

Jack Frost

It is fall and the animals are getting ready, storing food for winter. Jack frost is watching.

Jack Frost is getting ready, too. He paints the leaves different colors.

At night, he paints frost on the windows.

He brings the cold that nips at children's fingers and toes.

Jack Frost leaves and Old Man Winter is here now. He will stay until spring and make the cold and snow.